Introduction

4.2 of the strategy of action for the further development of the Republic of Uzbekistan. "Improving the social protection and health system of the population, women's priority tasks set out in the paragraph "increasing socio-political activity", in particular, social protection of women, ensuring gender equality, in public administration increasing participation, material, psychological, medical assistance to women in critical condition show, provide them with housing and employment, strengthen family values, in the family ensuring the stability of the spiritual environment<sup>1</sup> as a result of the work carried out on it the issue of social protection of women has reached a new level. New Uzbekistan large-scale innovation activity and creativity in the way of creation, creativity movement the founder was president of the Republic of Uzbekistan Sh.M. As Mirziyoev noted: "We are this year we will take the work on the support of women and young people to a new level".

After all, the protection of family, motherhood and childhood, the development of entrepreneurship among women, creating new jobs for them, improving labor and living conditions of state policy became a priority. Activities of representatives of state bodies, civil society in order to ensure coordination, the Republican women's Community Council has its own started work. Our compatriots with life experience, deputy and senator women are included in the council, scientists and professors and representatives of the public were included. Council Women's marriage improving their conditions, training them in the necessary knowledge and skills, as well as their own business the marriage of the population, especially women and girls, through the provision of the necessary funds for their initiation the level was established with the aim of achieving improvement.

In the following years, the protection of women's rights in our country and their the adoption of about 20 legal acts in the field of expansion of capabilities, 2030 the development of a strategy for achieving gender equality in the period up to the year, in accordance with which special procedures for analyzing all new bills from a gender point of view entered. The number of women in public administration in Uzbekistan, their participation in public affairs the rate of attainment and decision-making is increasing. In charge and management positions women's empowerment reached 26.6 percent. The number of women in the new parliament doubled. Currently, according to such an indicator, the Parliament of Uzbekistan contains 190 laws of the world's States it ranks 37th among the Legislature.

From the ultimate goals of such huge reforms carried out in our country one is related to the family, its peace, its faoveness and its happiness. If, society is the sum of social relations, then each family in it is natural, economic, it arises as a result of social unity based on legal, spiritual relationships. Family relations, on the other hand, existential social, economic, ideological, spiritual relations in society is defined by. Social and economic relations in society the strength of the family and plays a decisive role in its Sustainable Development. Just as well as peace in society and calmness, stability of the spiritual environment in it in many ways in relationships in each family mutual love and respect are directly related to Harmony.

In his work "the family", Fitrat, the great-grandson of the jadidist movement, said: "the fate of the nation it depends on the state of the family in which the representatives of this nationality lived... Where family attitude is strong relying on discipline, the country and the nation will be so strong and organized, " he writes. In the process the state is socially protected, financially supported, peaceful and prosperous for each family interested in having enough conditions to live their lives, it is necessary to ensure their well-being it is important that they promote the guarantee. Especially in our Country 2017- According to the "action strategy", which expressed its rapid progress for 2021, practical work in this direction has become Comprehensive, this process continues at a more intensive pace continues.

Article 63 of the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan states that " the family is the core of society is a branch and has the right to be in the protection of society and the state". Adopted on the basis of this norm of the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan "family at the request of Article 2 of the code, " a woman and a man are equal in family relations, the regulation of family relations is formed by the voluntary marriage of a man and a woman Union, equality of personal and property rights of husband and wife, internal family issues settlement by mutual agreement, upbringing of children in the family, their comfortable life and to take care of maturation, the right of minor and incapacitated family members and the protection of interests is carried out on the principles of superiority".

To the issue of domestic violence, which is becoming one of the global problems on a global scale despite the high attention given by international communities, such a negative in families the fact that the cases are not decreasing is the current in which this case is studied separately the fact that it remains in the ranks and determines the need to activate its scientific research. The presence of domestic violence as a problem is the economic, spiritual nature of the family aspects are not defined as well. It should be noted separately that in the following years our in our country, this problem is important, which is solved on a state scale, leaving a narrow Family Circle it is being researched as a sociological process. Solve this problem that has existed to this day factors that interfere with achieving, primarily with the characteristics of the national mentality related.

On may 19, 2021, the president of the Republic of Uzbekistan issued a statement entitled "abuse PQ-5116 " on additional measures for the rehabilitation of women seen- the decision of the number was made.<sup>29</sup> on rehabilitation and adaptation of women by decision Republican and territorial exemplary centers were established. From the main tasks of the Centers one has suffered from harassment and violence, attempted suicide or committed suicide emergency medical, psychological, social, pedagogical in an anonymous way to women with a predisposition, legal and other assistance is provided.

Suffered from violence in Republican and territorial rehabilitation and adaptation centers assistance is provided to citizens. Women and gender issues of the Senate of the House of Commons committee, prosecutor general's office, IIV, Ministry of Higher Education, Ministry of public education and neighborhood and the Ministry of family support is conducting preventive work on this issue. According to the World Health organization, life to every third woman in the world during the physical repression by his life partner is carried out. <sup>30</sup> married women Persi faces violent situations from a companion. A certain part of women's mortality it is carried out by their spouse and 42 of women who have been abused only percentage speaks openly about the problem. Based on the results of sociological studies conducted in different regions of our country moral and economic violence of domestic violence, which is common in the world lifestyle methods are also observed in Uzbekistan, bringing it to the attention of the general public and making it socially acceptable puts the need to come to solutions on the agenda as an urgent matter.
